CELEBRATE THE LARGEST BLACK HISTORY MONTH IN BRITAIN!

2014 is a very special year not only for the Committee but also for the Students' Union as a whole. The year marks the 50th anniversary of Malcolm X's visit to our Students' Union. In May 2013, Dr Cornell West, the eminent African-American professor of philosophy, unveiled a portrait by Geo Law of Malcolm X to be hung in our Students' Union. The hanging of the portrait during October will herald the start of the month long celebration of black and minority ethnic peoples' achievements. October will also usher the opening of our Students' Union Building.

The purpose of this month is not only to raise awareness of issues that are of incredible pertinence to BME people alone; but it is also being organised to educate, liberate and inform people of all backgrounds of achievements that ought to be celebrated, problems that ought to be corrected and hopes that ought to be realised. The month, organised around four themed weeks, will be attained in partnership with various establishments, committees and groups across the city. The four themes and the dates are as follows:

ARTS WEEK

7th October 2013 – 13th October 2013

This week will kick-start the celebrations for the rest of the month and it will focus generally on the arts, creativity and culture.

WOMEN'S WEEK

14th October 2013 – 20th October 2013

This week focuses on black and minority ethnic women; their achievements in life, their struggles and the issues that still face them in today's society.

EDUCATION WEEK

21ST October 2013 – 27TH October 2013

This week looks at the role of education in minority communities; its influence on their lives, the representation and retention of BME people in higher education, careers and future prospects for BME people.

LIBERATION WEEK

28TH October 2013 – 2ND November 2013

This week focuses on the political and social factors that affect black and minority ethnic people in today's society.

FRIDAY 4TH OCTOBER 2013

SHEFFIELD HALLAM UNIVERSITY & SHOWROOM CINEMA HOST -

"THE STUART HALL PROJECT" FILM SCREENING
(12A) + PANEL DISCUSSION

Hall's resounding and ongoing influence on British intellectual life commenced soon after he emigrated from Jamaica in 1951. Combing extensive archival imagery – television excerpts, home movies, family photos – with specially filmed material and a personally mixed Miles Davis soundtrack, Akomfrah's filmmaking approach matches the agility of Hall's intellect, its intimate play with memory, identity and scholarly impulse traversing the changing historical landscape of the second half of the 20th century.

Venue: Showroom Cinema. Time: 18:00-21:00. Ticketed Event: Price check cinema website for more details. Open to the public.

SATURDAY 5TH OCTOBER 2013

SHEFFIELD HALLAM UNIVERSITY & SHOWROOM CINEMA HOST -
"NOTHING BUT A MAN" FILM SCREENING (12A) -

A landmark of American cinema and reputedly Malcolm X's favourite film, this uniquely truthful depiction of black life in early 1960s Alabama rightly won great acclaim though it then sank into relative obscurity.

When railroad labourer Duff meets teacher Josie, he decides it's time to settle down to marriage and a factory job. Trouble is, he's expected to tolerate white bosses who, wittingly or not, are unfailingly racist, and Duff has his pride. Moreover, the couple have to deal not only with the disapproval of Josie's preacher father, but with Duff's son by a previous relationship and his own alcoholic father.
